Farnham Maltings

At the heart of Farnham for 40 years, the Maltings is the cultural hub of our town. Whether you fancy one of our renowned folk gigs or comedy nights, a pottery workshop, children's theatre, monthly market or just relaxing with a coffee and cake in our Riverside Café, there really is something for everybody.

A place where people can imagine, create and discover, the Maltings provides a unique resource for education and leisure, as well as offering opportunities for artists from across the south of England to develop their own work.

The Maltings has a rich history of community involvement woven into the fabric of its buildings, ever since its rescue from dereliction by the people of Farnham in the 1960s.

By becoming a member you will continue this very special tradition and help to secure our future development while enjoying a great package of benefits.
